Label / Cat #: Deceast (DEC010)

A: Deco - "Anoesis"

B: Deco - "Like to Listen"

Genre: Electronic

Release Date: Monday July 22nd, 2012

Deco's new single closely follows his just-released Back to the Beginning EP with two more doses of funk-ed-out midtempo beats. "Anoesis" leads the way with its numerous classic breaks, soul-drenched synths and warmly rounded bass. On the flip, "Like to Listen" features thick pads and booming 808 bass reminiscent of 1990s atmospheric drum n' bass wrapped up in a slower tempo package. Chopped up rap vocals and stuttering hi-hats are a nod to Deco's Atlanta roots and the burgeoning "trap" style currently finding its way through electronic music.

This single marks Deceast's 10th official release and the first one to incorporate the varied tempos Deco has been releasing as free giveaways over the past year. With more varied styles currently in development, Deceast is looking forward to giving listeners a wider range of tempos in the near future.
